OTHER INFORMATION

Benefits	Permanent (Regular) employees	Are eligible for Retirement/Pension (mandatory) and 401k plans, as well as Life, Health, and Long-Term Care insurances. Earn paid time off (annual leave) and paid sick days (sick leave)
	Flexible (Intermittent) employees	Are not normally eligible for benefits; however, benefits may be provided at a later time if hours worked for a specified timeframe meet benefit eligibility requirements

For additional information about benefits, click here

Reemployment Restrictions	If you are a NAF/Federal Civil Service retiree or accepted a Voluntary Separation Incentive Pay (VSIP), be prepared to provide additional information to HR to ensure there are no restrictions to your re-employment
Selective Service	Any individual who was required to register with Selective Service and who is not registered or knowingly and willfully did not register before the requirement terminated or became inapplicable to the individual, will not be hired.
E-Verify	(Not applicable to foreign OCONUS) Applicants have the ability to perform an E-Verify Self Check to confirm employment eligibility. Although a Self-Check is not mandatory, it can be a useful tool for applicants to find out if there is a problem with their employment eligibility records and resolve any issues before taking a job. If you would like to do an E-Verify self-check, click here .
Termination of SEP Preference	Refusal of a military spouse to participate in established recruitment procedures for a RFT or RPT position (for example, interview, and so forth) is considered a declination of employment and is a basis for termination of Spouse Employment Preference (SEP) entitlement for the current Permanent Change of Station (PCS) of the sponsor.
Denial of Employment	It is the policy of the Government not to deny employment simply because an individual has been unemployed or has had financial difficulties that have arisen through no fault of the individual. Information about an individual's employment experience will be used only to determine the person's qualifications and to assess his or her relative level of knowledge, skill, and abilities. Although an individual's personal conduct may be relevant in any employment decision, including conduct during periods of unemployment or evidence of dishonesty in handling financial matters, financial difficulty that has arisen through no fault of the individual will generally not itself be the basis of an unfavorable suitability or fitness determination.
Reasonable Accommodations	The Department of the Army provides reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, notify your servicing NAF HR Office. Requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.
Notifications	Touch-Point notifications/updates will be sent during key stages of the application process. These are intended to keep you informed throughout all the steps of the recruitment process. If you have any questions, the contact information for each individual announcement will be listed within the application status profile.
Positions Having Regular and Recurring Contact with Children	No person regardless of circumstance, will be approved to provide childcare services and/or approved for hire in positions designated as having regular and recurring contact with children if the background check discloses that the individual has been convicted for any of the following: a sexual offense, any criminal offense involving a child victim, or a felony drug charge.
Equal Opportunity Employer	The Department of the Army Nonappropriated Fund Instrumentalities are an equal opportunity employer.
Background Screening Process	All individuals selected for a position will be subject to a background screening process which will include at minimum local background checks (i.e. military police, criminal investigations division, host nation law enforcement, etc.). Positions requiring a background investigation through the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA) will be subject at minimum, to a Tier 1 (National Agency Check with Inquiries). This is a federal investigation including a fingerprint and/or name check against FBI and other federal agency databases, as well as an investigation into, at minimum, your residence and employment history within the past 5 years, your education and degrees obtained, the character of your military service, among other areas.

In addition to the above requirements, positions in Childcare will require more extensive background checks such as State Criminal History Repository Checks.

National Security positions, requiring a Tier 3 or higher investigation will have a significantly more expansive federal investigation by the OPM.

A successful background investigation submission to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is a condition of employment that must be met no later than 30 calendar days after entry on duty or placement in the position for internal candidates.

Employment of Non-US Citizens

Appointment is subject to the completion of a favorable suitability determination. Department of the Army Nonappropriated Funds (NAF) may employ non-US Citizens under certain conditions, in certain non-selective positions. Within the United States, a non-US citizen must possess a valid green card and a Social Security Card with no employment restrictions. In overseas locations, non-US Citizens may only be employed in accordance with the restrictions and provisions of the respective Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) which exists with that country and United States of America.
